Wash your hands before you start and please ask an adult to help with the heating of chocolate.

1. in a

bain-marie (bowl on top of pan of boiling water) or in the microwave

2. Use the melted chocolate to stick your biscuits together, when hard the chocolate acts like glue

3
3. Make some edible biscuit buildings using different designs to

build floors, roofs and walls

4
4. Experiment with your biscuits, how can you make

your building look strong and stay standing?

5  +
5. Take a photo and send it in for us to see your

design and answer the following questions:

- What type of biscuits did you use?
- Was your building fun/easy/hard to build?
- Did you enjoy this task?
- Did you eat your building when you'd finished?
